

River City Food Bank

Because no one should be hungry

Press Packet Program Description

River City Food Bank (RCFB) began as a simple food closet in 1968 and has been fighting hunger in Sacramento County for over 40 years. Open five days a week from 11:30 to 3 pm, RCFB is the rare food bank that serves every Sacramento County zip code and provides nutritious and healthy food.

By the numbers: In 2011

- 47,408 clients were served
- 4,625 were over 60 years of age
- 13,362 were children
- 666,591 pounds of food were distributed
- Volunteers contributed over 29,000 hours

By the end of 2012, we expect to serve over 50,000 people

Since January, RCFB has experienced 38% increase in the number of seniors coming to the food bank.

Every fourth client RCFB serves is a child.

In the last two years, the numbers of clients requesting service has increased 20%.
